

Directions: Go to the website khmsteched.weebly.com/bls-career-exploration--planning to find a number of video tutorial resources that will help you think about and answer the questions below. Take your time, be thoughtful about these questions. They are designed to help you plan for your future!

Get the Facts on the Bureau of Labor Statistics video questions:

1. What are 3 questions that the BLS website can help you with?

2. This video mentions how goals throughout life can change for people. Think about some things that you want to accomplish in your lifetime. These can be accomplishments, things you would like to purchase, places you want to visit, etc. Come up with 5 goals for your lifetime and record below.

Understanding BLS Employment Projections video questions:

3. What are 2 ways that the BLS reports the projections of an occupations growth?

4. In the video, which job example had the higher rate of growth by percentage?

5. In the video, which job example had the higher rate of growth by the actual number of new jobs?

A Look at Occupational Employment in the United States:

6. This video breaks down how many jobs there would be in the U.S. if there were only 100 jobs total. Create a quick table of the top jobs categories, and how many jobs would be in that category.

7. What jobs in the video would be a very small amount, so small that the video did not give them number? Name at least 6 of them

Fastest Growing Occupations 2014-24

8. Take a look at the last set of Data in this video, Fastest Growing Occupations, Some Post-Secondary Education Required. Is there any information there that you found interesting and/or unexpected? Explain.

Ted Talk on the Future of Jobs & Will Robots Take Our Jobs?

9. Both of these videos make a case for jobs that will be taken over by robots and jobs that will not. What do you think? How do you think robots will change the way we work, and the types of jobs humans will have?

10. Think about the job of being a teacher. How might technology/robots/computers change the job of teaching in the future?